Introduction

The purpose of this book is to tell how God saved Jason's life after being in the world's largest, most powerful cult for 37 years.

Satan wanted to destroy Jason, but Christ used his nightmare life to rescue people from addiction to alcohol and drugs.

Jason was sexually molested and psychologically abused in the 1960's-1990's. At age 6, he was chased by a man in a hood carrying a sword. Real sword? What did the hood represent? Mind control and the life control of a six-year-old boy; that is how the cult works. Mind manipulation and mind control. Later in his life Jason becomes addicted to alcohol and narcotics. These addictions led Jason behind bars. He has been married three times. He has survived such catastrophic events as a heart attack, stroke and even cancer. This is his story.

In 2001, Jason had hit rock bottom. Without money, job or a car he turned to a belief system that had been implanted in him years ago. He reached out to and then made a covenant with God. Jason told God that if he brought other people with addictions into his life, Jason could and would use his training in the mental health field to help these people. God did spiritual surgery on Jason and opened the floodgates. Spiritual surgery is painful. Jason did not know how to love himself and for that matter didn't even know that was possible. God had to teach him those things. God is love. God is the perfect father to teach values that should have been taught to Jason by his earthly father. Jason knew that he had done hideous evil things, but God taught Jason how to forgive himself for those things and how to love himself despite himself.

Since 2001, several people have knocked on Jason's front door at all hours of the night. Some were suicidal. Most were alcoholics and drug addicts. These terrible experiences help him understand what mental health clients go through.

Some of the stories in this book will turn your stomach and make you furious. The mental images described in this book will keep you up at night. However, God rescued Jason from inhumane conditions and gave him victory and success. God delivered Jason from his addictions and nightmares. God can do the same for you.

I've known Jason since 1970. In 2021, Jason called me and wanted to share his nightmares along with the victorious testimonies. Jason wore a mask over his secret life for over 50 years. For the glory of God, Jason took off his mask and agreed to do this interview. Brace yourself and prepare to be shocked and blessed.

Chapter 1 – 1964: My Life Begins

Me:

Jason, what is your earliest memory?

Jason:

This is the information my adoptive mother gave to me. My birth name was John Stout. I was born in 1964 in Indianapolis, Indiana at an unwed mother's hospital. When I was born, they had trouble in the delivery room. They had to use forceps. The results of this can still be seen and felt. I was also born with fetal alcohol syndrome. From birth it was known that mental state could be that of either a vegetable, be highly intelligent or have Down syndrome. Because of my medical issues, I was passed between three different families before I got a Social Security number.

In 1957, Jerry Stephens got out of the Korean conflict. He was from Carroll. He liked to drink beer at the Polish Club. He met Melanie Franklin at the Club. Melanie came from South Dakota by way of Cincinnati. Jerry and Melanie got married. Jerry liked to go up to the lakes in northeast Indiana. He bought a trailer on Manterra Lake. In 1964, the Stephens family adopted me. Jerry and Melanie changed my name to "Jason".

All my life my mother and great grandmother (Ada Clippy) told me that I was chosen. I believe that.

At age 4, Ada gave me coffee and toast. Ada rented a trailer from us. She kept a glass of beer on the table. I used to sneak into her trailer. I drank beer out of her glass. One day, she put vinegar in the beer to try and teach me a lesson. That was the last time I drank HER beer.

My dad was my hero. I followed him around like a pup. He could fix anything. He worked as a tool and die expert for General Motors. He invented the Sonic Weld for the taillights at Guide Lamp in Anderson, Indiana. I wanted to be like him. During the winter months, he drove a tractor and pulled me on a sled. It was a lot of fun.

They adopted my sister in 1967. I was her protector. She had red hair. Kids picked on her at school. When I was 4 years old my mom and dad wouldn't take me out in public. I was young. I wanted all the attention, especially when they adopted my sister. I started stealing and lying. I got my way all the time. In total, the cult adopted six kids and put us in homes in Sycamore Forest. There was me and another boy and two girls less than 10 years old. There were two other boys in their mid-teens.

At age 5, I went to Harrison Elementary School. My dad worked the night shift. He dropped me off for afternoon kindergarten. I walked in, but no one was there. Being five, I panicked. I walked out and started hitchhiking down 53rd St. in Carroll. A mailman picked me up and took me home. That incident led to
